

News of the Day.

James L. Orr, Governor elect of South Carolina, has just been elected Mayor of the Free Press of that State.

The credentials of Sharkey and Alcorn, Senators elect from Mississippi, were presented in the Senate yesterday, and referred to a committee.

Dr. Gwin, who was arrested some time since on his return from Mexico to the United States, is confined at Fort Jackson, below New Orleans.

Hon. John Poole, who is reported to be a Union man, was yesterday elected United States Senator by the North Carolina Legislature, for the short term.

The Nashville Press and Times says (quoting) of Leavenworth, Kansas, massacre recently removed to Mississippi, and was elected sheriff recently. He has gone to Washington to obtain pardon, in order to "sally himself to take his office."

The new military provisional company, organized from men of the Veteran Reserve Corps (as directed by the War Department), who have decided to remain in the service, will be assigned to duty at the President's Mansion.

The election for Mayor took place in New York City yesterday. There were four or five candidates for the office. Hoffman, Tammany Democrat, was elected over Roberts, Republican, next highest, by 1500 majority. The Republican candidate polled over 30,000 votes, though opposed by the Tribune and Post, which supported Hecker, the Citizens' Association candidate.

It is the wish of Mayor General Howard, Commissioner of the Freedmen, to suppress the false representation of certain parties in the Northern States, who are collecting money for the purpose of purchasing and selling the freedmen in the District of Columbia. The General states that there is no foundation for such statements, for the freedmen are nearly twenty thousand in the District, less than three thousand are receiving rations from the United States Government.

The Spanish Minister, acting under instructions from his Government, read on Thursday to the Secretary of State a dispatch concerning the slave trade, and communication was replied with the most emphatic expressions. The traffic is called by such expressions as "inhuman curse," "prophetic," and "repulsive," and "outrageous piracy." The Spanish Government pledges its earnest efforts for its extinction, and will have all convicted of participation summarily executed, without apprehension of any of the ports of Spain and all ports of the Spanish possessions.

A day or two ago we printed a dispatch announcing the horrible murder of a whole family, consisting of a father, mother and little girl, near Uta, New York. The journals of that city announce that the father was the perpetrator of the deed, and had afterwards committed suicide. The family, whose name was Waldrat, was a highly respectable one, and the murderer, and afterwards suicide, was a young man, the reputation of a kind and loving husband and affectionate father. For several days previous to the murder he had been laboring under a depression of mind, and it is thought he was temporarily insane when he committed the terrible deed.

THE MESSAGES.
We print this morning both the President's and Governor's Messages. They occupy so much of the space of our columns that we have no room for extended comments. Both documents will be read with great interest.

The report of Secretary McCulloch is looked for with great interest, but we believe he will recommend such a policy as will bring the nation back to specie payment at an early period. We hope to have it in a day or two.

LIEUT. GEN. GRANT'S REPORT.
Accompanying the President's Message we have the report of Lieut. Gen. Grant, detailing the movements of the armies of the United States since they were put under his direction.

His narrative is plain, almost to bluntness, and we shall lay it more important portions before our readers, as soon as we find room for it.

REPORT OF THE SECRETARY OF WAR.
The able report of Mr. Stanton is on our table, detailing the affairs of the War Department since the opening of the last session of Congress.

As a business document it is a model of terseness and perspicuity.

THE POSTMASTER GENERAL'S REPORT.
Mr. Dennison's report has been received, but we must defer any notice of it at present.

Proclamation by the Mayor.
MAYOR'S OFFICE, December 6th, 1865.
Thursday, December 7th, being the day set apart by the President of the United States, and the Government of the several States, as a general day of Thanksgiving and Prayer, for the restoration of peace and unity throughout the land, I hereby request a suspension of all business in the city and trust that it will be kept sacred by all our citizens.

PHILIP TOMPERT, Mayor.

EDINBURGH REVIEW.—We have received the Edinburgh Review for October from the republication office of Leonard, Scott & Co., of New York. This old quarterly ranks in excellence among the best magazines in the world. It is unnecessary to say more of the October number than that it is not inferior to any of its predecessors, and is replete with interest. Its contents are as follows: "Journal and Correspondence of Miss Berry," "Life in the Criminal Class," "The Rock Cut Temples of India," "Life of Carl Maria von Weber," "Campbell's Front and Rear," "Psalms and Writings of Alexis Tocqueville," "Palgrave Arabia," "The Cromwellian Settlement of Ireland," "Sir Thomas Tynan's Plagiarism," and "American Psychomancy."

"Barleigh" the non de plume under which Rev. Matthew Hale Smith writes to the Boston Journal, tells of a remarkable robbery in New York. "The broker was inside the counter, near the safe. A man came in without a hat, and with a pen behind his ear. He walked round to the side of the counter, and said to the broker, 'Please move, sir,' and the broker moved. The teller, who was sitting at the counter, looked out of the safe several times, and the man, who was walking away, and has never been seen from that time to this. Near the closing hour of business, the teller, who was sitting at the counter, turned to one of the clerks and asked him for them, stating that he saw him remove them from the safe. Fortunately the clerk was able to prove an alibi, and then the audacity of the thief was made apparent.

ATTENTION!—All volunteers of 1861 and '62 are requested to meet at Turner Hall on Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock, to ratify the resolutions drafted by the committee.

CITY AND GENERAL NEWS.

MEETING OF THE COUNCIL.

EXTRAORDINARY PROCEEDINGS.

The Mayor Refuses to Sign the Market Street Railroad Bill.

HIS REASONS THEREOF.

He is Impeached.

There was a large crowd of visitors at the Council Chamber last night, drawn thither to witness one of the most extraordinary scenes that has ever occurred in that body.

It will be remembered that at a meeting of the Council some weeks ago a resolution was passed granting to the Louisville and Nashville Railroad Company a street railroad through Market street. At the next meeting of the Council the resolution was returned with a veto message. The resolution was passed over the veto, and of course became a law. Last night the Mayor sent the following extraordinary message to the Council:

MAYOR'S OFFICE,
LOUISVILLE, December 3, 1865.
To the General Council:—Gentlemen: The contract for building the Market street railway was duly prepared by the Council City Attorney, and presented to me for execution in accordance with your resolution, which I have declined to execute for reasons which I deem it my duty to report to your honorable body. Since the passage of the resolution by your body, I have learned through reliable sources that certain influential persons have been used to effect the passage of the said resolution, and that one member of the Common Council has said to several gentlemen, who have furnished their affidavits to the Council, that he received a large reward for his vote in favor of said resolution. I deem it due to the Council and the citizens of Louisville to have this matter presented to you for investigation before completing the contract, believing as I do that the Council will desire to see the body to purge it of corruption and venality in proper regard to the interests of the citizens of Louisville, which have been intimated to their keeping. I am ready to submit to the Council the affidavits which implicate one of the members of your body in this transaction, when called upon, and am prepared to furnish the affidavits of the citizens of Louisville who, I am informed, are also cognizant of the facts and are ready to testify before your body, and I, therefore, respectfully submit this information before executing said contract, as a reason for its non-execution.

I would, further, respectfully submit that, when a member of your body receives a consideration for his support of any project pending before your body, he becomes a party in interest, and, under the charter, could not have a vote, and that, in this case, if such vote is excluded, the said resolution has not received the requisite vote to pass it over my veto.

Again, I am informed by the Assistant City Attorney, and many other eminent legal gentlemen of the city, that Mr. Henderson has no right to sign his name for an unincorporated company, and that he induces written authority from every member of said company; that, to make his signature for a company valid, he must be duly elected and sworn to, and that it must be duly incorporated.

For these reasons, I herewith submit the facts in the case to your honorable body before proceeding further in the matter.

In addition, I would state that Mr. Henderson has demanded and received from me the writings containing the concessions that he, by the ordinance, was first elected, as the President of the Louisville and Portland Railroad Company, to grant to the city.

I present this as another and an unsupportable difficulty in the way of executing said contract.

Respectfully,
PHILIP TOMPERT, Mayor.

A motion to refer was lost by a vote of yeas 9, nays 14.

A motion to lay on the table was carried, yeas 13, nays 10.

Mr. Miller then offered the following articles of impeachment:

To the Honorable the Board of Aldermen of the City of Louisville: The Board of Common Council of the City of Louisville, do hereby inform you that Philip Tompert, Mayor of said city, has refused, and persists in refusing to, and will not enter into and execute for the said city, the contract for building a street railway along Market street and certain other streets in said city, as set forth in said contract, though said contract has been prepared as directed by said General Council, and being in due form and manner signed by said Henderson for himself and his associates, was, in proper time, presented to said Mayor for his signature, and so as aforesaid.
